Key rating drivers, as strengths and constraints, are provided below:

Strengths	Constraints
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> As a prominent player in Türkiye's yarn and high-quality denim fabric industry, the Group consistently achieves success in the realm of sustainable cotton textile manufacturing, Sustainable operational performance generating an anticipated level of profitability, Effective net working capital turnover ratio, A robust global and domestic clientele, characterized by varied range of products and close ties with well-known brands, supports consistent sales revenue, Established track record of Çalık Holding A.Ş. and mitigated market and geographic risk exposures through wide range of activities of Çalık Family. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Deterioration in profitability ratios in 2022 due to increasing cost though still standing at adequate levels, Long cash conversion cycle due to maintaining of inventories as its business case, Negative CFO and FOCF metrics, due to change in working capital, Slowdown coverage ratios and deterioration in leverage metrics caused by indebtedness, Intense competition in the sector, The devastation caused by the earthquakes in February 2023 in the regions of operation.

Considering the aforementioned points, the Group's Long-Term National Issuer Credit Rating has been affirmed as 'A-(tr)'. No separate rating report has been compiled as the resources obtained from the bond issue will be carried in the Group's balance sheet and has been subject to analysis in the corporate credit rating report. The planned bond issue carries no difference in comparison to the Group's other liabilities with respect to its legal standing and collateralization. As such, the notations outlined in the corporate credit rating report also reflect the issue rating but do not cover any structured finance instruments. Issue ratings are assigned for both outstanding and prospective debt instruments and incorporate assessments until their maturities. Additionally, the Group's market position, operational performance, long term customer structure, cash flow metrics, profitability indicators, leverage level, manufacturing facilities that are compliant with international quality standards and synergies created by Çalık Group, indebtedness structure and the effects of the earthquake, as well as, vulnerability of the sector to macroeconomic conditions and sectoral metrics have been evaluated as important indicators for the stability of the ratings and the outlooks for Long and Short-Term National Issuer Credit Ratings are determined as 'Stable'.

The Group's financial structure and attainability of the Group's budgeted projections will be closely monitored by JCR Eurasia Rating in upcoming periods. The macroeconomic indicators in national and international markets, as well as market conditions and legal framework about the sector will be monitored as well.
